

Binghamton University (State University of New York)
General Education Student Learning Assessment Dashboard
Social Science

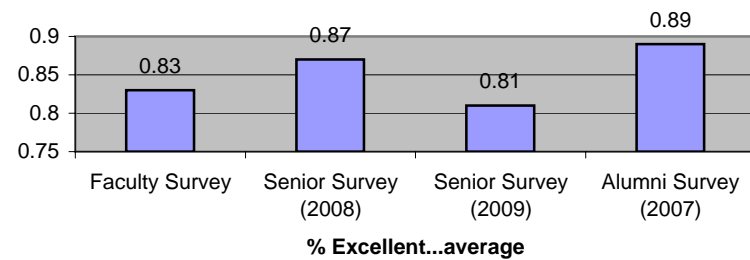

Social Science Portfolios: Instructor Estimates of Student Performance by Cyle Year

ACT Report Findings (2007)

This committee finds the level of achievement and satisfaction with student learning outcomes in the social sciences to be gratifyingly high. The standards and demands of the instructors are appropriate and the performance of the students, with an average of 35% exceeding expectations, is extremely impressive. All things being equal, the social sciences are healthy and vigorous at Binghamton University, these courses are excellent, and the learning outcomes are being met at extremely high levels.

Student Performance Survey Results:
Understanding methods used to explore the world...in ways that are objective and impartial composition Portfolios: Instructor Performance by Cyle Year

Exceeded or Met Expectations

