PLEASE NOTE: Non-degree students are permitted to attend for only one semester without providing official transcripts. If you plan to enroll for more than one semester, official high school transcripts and/or college transcripts must be submitted to the Admissions Office one month prior to registration for your second term of attendance. Students admitted to Binghamton University are subject to all Rules of Student Conduct and are required to review those rules on the Web at studenthandbook.binghamton.edu prior to course registration. These rules are published annually and available upon request from the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. As outlined in these rules, the University is permitted to cancel courses if registration demand is insufficient and also, if appropriate, to cancel the enrollment of students who do not abide by the stated rules and regulations.

Please be sure to sign and date this form.
