

Reading & Writing Vietnamese

For Vietnamese children in grades 2 – 5

Five Saturdays, October 17 to November 14, 2009 - 10:00 a.m. to Noon

Location:

All Saints Episcopal Church
475 Main Street, Johnson City

Fee $20 – includes a reading and writing workbook for your child to keep. If you cannot afford the $20 fee for your child, please call us – some scholarships are available. Please bring your payment to the first class.

Your child will learn:

1. The Vietnamese alphabet: Writing and Pronunciation
2. The six tones
3. Single vowels in combination with consonants and tones
4. Introduction to consonant clusters
5. Basic vocabulary and speaking practice in addressing, greeting, saying goodbye, talking about names and terms of address

Text book: EM HOC VIET NGU quyên 1 by Nguyen Thi Tuyet Long

Class will be taught by Mrs. Hanh Luong. Class size is limited to 20 children. A snack will be served in each class. After the final class, at noon on November 14, there will be a special luncheon for participating children and their families. Please bring your family and your favorite Vietnamese food to share.

Please sign up by October 5th.

For more information (in Vietnamese) call Hanh Luong at: (607) 237-0622

For more information (in English) call Karen Madsen at: (607) 777-4514

Please mail this form to: IAAD – Asian & Asian American Studies
Binghamton University
PO Box 6000
Binghamton, NY 13902-6000

Student's name: _____ School: _____

Grade: _____ Telephone Number: _____

Address _____

Does your child speak Vietnamese? (Circle one) Yes No

BINGHAMTON
UNIVERSITY
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Sponsored by:
The Institute for Asia & Asian Diasporas, Binghamton University
& All Saints Episcopal Church, Johnson City