300-499 are upper division undergraduate courses

500 and above are graduate courses.

UNDERGRADUATE TRANSCRIPT KEY

Binghamton University, the State University of New York at Binghamton, has five undergraduate schools: Harpur College of Arts and Sciences (the liberal arts component); the School of Management; the Decker School of Nursing; the Thomas J. Watson School of Engineering, Applied Science and Technology; and the College of Community and Public Affairs. The descriptions that follow explain the transcripts for each of these undergraduate schools and the information noted thereon.

Unless otherwise noted, the transcript is a complete semester-by-semester record of all courses taken and grades received regardless of whether or not the grade is included in the GPA computation. Transcripts do not include notations for academic actions of probation, suspension, or dismissal.

The Graduate School at Binghamton University also offers programs in the Arts and Sciences, Management, Nursing, Education, Public and Community Affairs, and Engineering, Applied Science and Technology. Graduate work appears on a separate transcript.

Current Undergraduate Grading System

Unless footnoted to the contrary, all credits that appear on a matriculated student's transcript are applied to progression toward a degree. The grade-point average is calculated on a 4.0 scale.

The following grading system applies to all schools. Any differences will be noted under each individual school.

Grades Carrying No Grade Points*

Grade	Description	Grade Points per Hour	Grade	Description
A	Excellent	4.0	P	Passing, equivalent of D or better
A-		3.7	0A, 0B, etc.	Letter Grade repeated course
B+		3.3	0P, 0F	Pass / Fail repeated course
B	Good	3.0	MG	Missing Grade
B-		2.7	W	Withdrawn
C+		2.3	I	Incomplete
C	Satisfactory	2.0	AU	Audit
C-		1.7
D	Barely Passing	1.0
F	Failing	0.0

* Not figured in semester and cumulative GPA.

For grading systems in use prior to 1979 (for Harpur College), 1981 (for the School of Management and the Decker School of Nursing), and 1983 (for the Thomas J. Watson School of Engineering, Applied Science, and Technology and the School of Education and Human Development), please refer to the Binghamton University website at <http://bulletin.binghamton.edu>.

Harpur College of Arts and Sciences

Rate of Progress and Grade Point Averages. Grades in courses taken prior to June 1985 are not computed in the GPA due to the policies in effect at that time. To maintain satisfactory academic progress, students are required to earn a minimum GPA of 2.0 in all courses taken for credit.

University grading system applies, with the following exceptions:

Certain types of Physical Education courses do not factor into the semester or cumulative GPA for Harpur students. The grade for these courses are preceded by a 'P'. Letter grades appear as PA, PA-, PB+, PB, PB-, PC+, PC, PC- or PD. Pass/fail grades appear as PP or PF.

School of Management

Beginning with January 1981, grade-point averages are computed on a student's academic work in all colleges at Binghamton University, including minus grades. Beginning with Fall 1983, Management transcripts reflect academic honors awarded (semester Dean's list).

University grading system applies.

Decker School of Nursing

A grade-point average is computed for all courses taken, and includes minus grades. Nursing transcripts reflect both academic honors awarded since Spring 1982 (semester Dean's list).

University grading system applies, with the following exception:

Grade	Description	Grade Points Per Hour
*P	Passing	Equivalent of C- or better

*Carries no grade-points, not figured in semester and cumulative totals.

Thomas J. Watson School of Engineering, Applied Science and Technology

Present Grading System - A grade-point average is computed for all courses taken, and includes minus grades.

University grading system applies with the following exceptions:

Certain types of Physical Education courses do not factor into the semester or cumulative GPA for Watson students. The grade for these courses are preceded by a 'P'. Letter grades appear as PA, PA-, PB+, PB, PB-, PC+, PC, PC- or PD. Pass/fail grades appear as PP or PF.

College of Community and Public Affairs

To remain in good academic standing, CCPA students enrolled in degree programs are expected to make satisfactory progress toward the degree. In CCPA, satisfactory progress is defined as maintaining a grade-point average of 2.0 in all courses taken (whether or not in CCPA). The grade-point average is calculated on a 4.0 scale. The January 1981 to Present grading policy remains in effect.

Present Grading System - A grade-point average is computed for all courses taken, and includes minus grades. Effective Fall 1987, CCPA transcripts reflect academic honors awarded (semester Dean's list).

University grading system applies.

School of Education

The School of Education offers graduate degree programs in Education. Grading System: See Graduate School Grading System.
