

CAREER SERVICES CENTER STUDENT GROUPS

Alpha Kappa Psi

Founded in 1904 at New York University, Alpha Kappa Psi is the world's oldest and largest professional business fraternity with more than 230,000 members initiated into the brotherhood worldwide. The Omega Zeta chapter was founded at Binghamton in 2007. In 2011, AKPsi was recognized by Greek Life as having the highest GPA of all Greek organizations. Our brothers take part in and plan professional, social, fundraising, community service, and corporate partnership events.

Bert Mitchell Minority Management Organization

BMMMO addresses the needs of minority students interested in the various management disciplines, and promotes the development of skills and talents central to successful careers within these disciplines. Members provide useful advice for students interested in transferring into the School of Management. They facilitate the students' transition from high school to college, undergraduate to graduate, or academic to corporate environments. The organization is responsible for organizing and running study groups, workshops and tutorial services. bmmmo-naba.webs.com

Beta Alpha Psi

Beta Alpha Psi (BAP) is an honorary organization for financial information students and professionals. Our primary objective is to encourage and give recognition to scholastic and professional excellence in the business information field. This includes promoting the study and practice of accounting, finance and information systems; providing opportunities for self-development, service and association among members and practicing professionals; and encouraging a sense of ethical, social, and public responsibility. ### Delta Sigma Pi

Delta Sigma Pi is the largest national professional business fraternity with more than 220 collegiate chapters. The organization exists to stimulate the study of business in universities, promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce, and foster a higher standard of commercial ethics. The Kappa Lambda chapter at Binghamton, chartered in 1981, is the largest professional group on campus and represents students in all areas of business. Kappalambda.org

Finance Society

The Binghamton University Finance Society is a forum for motivated students to share knowledge about the world of finance. Our focus is to establish a thorough understanding of the careers and opportunities that exist in the investment management, banking and consulting industries.

Foreign Exchange Trading Club

The Foreign Exchange Trading Club (FX Trading Club) aims to acquire a better understanding of currency trading in an international, multi-million dollar market that operates 24/7. We also aim to provide the best platform for students to facilitate the discussion of various economic events and conditions, enhance the learning of trading tools to interpret instant changes in the foreign exchange market (forex), and improve public speaking skills in professionalism. No experience in forex trading is necessary, so come check us out!

GMA

Graduate Management Association

Graduate Management Association

The Graduate Management Association is a group of graduate students that acts as the voice of the MBA and MS Accounting students and helps to make the first year of graduate school as fun and productive as possible. The GMA plans social events that allow graduate students to get to know their classmates outside of school and bridges the gap between first-year and second-year graduate students.

Personal Finance Association

What do you know about your personal finances? Through informative lectures and hands-on activities, the Personal Finance Association at Binghamton University aims to educate any and all students in topics such as checking, income taxes, employee withholding, stocks, credit cards, bonds, savings plans, pensions, buying/leasing apartments and cars, and insurance. We want to prepare students for the real world by teaching things that cannot be learned in class.

PricewaterhouseCoopers Scholars Program

The PwC Scholars Program is designed to challenge the School of Management's top students both inside and outside the classroom. Scholars participate in additional coursework, mentoring the freshman class, a speaker series of local business leaders, social events, and an annual service project to better the Binghamton community. Scholars are also given the opportunity to participate in an international trip as well as a visit to PricewaterhouseCoopers' New York offices at the sophomore level.

Students in Free Enterprise

SIFE is about building the leaders of tomorrow. We practice, teach and learn about entrepreneurship and how it is applied to the real world. Projects are done throughout the year involving the Binghamton community and student-run businesses. In the spring, we go to SIFE's Regional Competition which offers great opportunities for networking with major employers. sife.org
